The following Code of Conduct applies to all UW-FDL students participating in a course or extracurricular travel which is sponsored, co-sponsored, or otherwise supported by UW-FDL or a recognized UW-FDL student organization, or in which the name of the college is used in conjunction with the event.

Behavior:
1. Participant behavior traveling to, from, or during the course or event, should reflect positively upon UW-FDL, the student organization, and the individual at all times. This also applies to conduct during social activities or times when no formal activities or meetings are scheduled, such as late evening or early morning hours.
2. Participant will not consume alcohol or use illegal drugs during this university-sponsored event or course. Alcohol consumption by individuals of legal age is discouraged and only permissible outside of course activities and in a responsible manner.
3. Participants are not to have contact with minors during the course of this trip.
4. Participants will follow the itinerary and schedule as provided on the Student Travel Form.
5. Participants who disregard or violate these rules will be required to return home at their own expense and repay any or all fees paid by UW-FDL for participation in the trip (per #5 on Uniform Statement of Responsibility) and may receive disciplinary action per UWS Chapter 17: Student Non-Academic Disciplinary Procedures.
6. Participants will report any accidents, injuries or illnesses to the attending advisor or Group Leader immediately.
7. Participants are expected to attend all meetings, workshops, and other scheduled events, activities and programs.
8. Participants should be emotionally and physically capable of participating at event programs. Reasonable accommodations can be made with prior notification.

Expenses:
1. Participants having expenses covered are responsible for keeping all receipts for the purpose of verification and reimbursement through the UW-FDL Business Office. Any other expenses shall not be reimbursed, unless deemed appropriate and previously authorized (such as long distance phone calls, room charges, etc.)
2. Participants responsible for damages and/or vandalism to properties or vehicles during the course of the event will be held financially liable.
3. For the sake of fiscal responsibility, participants will carpool and/or use the UW-FDL vehicle whenever possible. Non-carpooling arrangements must be approved/deemed necessary in advance.

By signing below, I understand:
1. And agree that the attending advisor or Group Leader who accompanies the students will have total authority over the supervision of the event and its' UW-FDL participants.
2. That I must adhere to the advisor's or Group Leader's decisions and judgments, and accord them the common courtesy and respect due by virtue of being a representative of UW-FDL.
3. And will abide by all expectations described within this Code of Conduct.
4. And acknowledge that I have been provided a copy of UWS Chapter 17

Student Name (Printed)  Student Signature  Date